

Book Clubs at Upper Sandusky Community Library

The Upper Sandusky Community Library is committed to providing programs that will interest and benefit our patrons.

There are two book clubs available for our patrons during the month. These book clubs are open to the public and newcomers are always welcome.

Join us for great discussion with other readers, share your love of books, and expand your reading horizons as part of our book clubs.

Contact the library for more information about our book clubs. We will help guide you to the club that best meets your needs and enriches your reading experience.

COMMON READERS

The Common Readers have been meeting for over twenty years at USCL to discuss books. They meet at 7:00 p.m. on the third Tuesday of the month in the boardroom on the library's lower level. There are no meetings in July or December.

The group has an impressive book list that includes classics, best-sellers, and more.

Common Readers is open to the public and welcomes newcomers to the group. Please feel free to join us for one, several, or all of our meetings.

The books for each meeting will be available at USCL in a variety of formats. Stop by the front desk to pick up your copy or call us at 419-294-1345 for more information about Common Readers.

BOOKTALK

BookTalk is USCL's newest book club. It meets on the first Thursday of the month at 10:00 a.m. in the boardroom on the library's lower level for a casual discussion of what you are currently reading. Stop by the front desk for more information or call us at 419-294-1345 to learn more about BookTalk.
